Dear cousin:

Enclosed is the poem, "Glancing into the Past", which I wrote for the 120th anniversary of the C. C. B. Church. Edenville is pronounced as the E in the Garden of Eden. This place was located below Aldenville, where the Prompton Ham is now.

There was a one room school there, a short distance below Eugene Curtis, where my mother taught school. She also taught at Curtis Valley and got seven dollars a month and boarded around. The dollar was worth something then!

The reunion being on Sat., I wonder if Alice, or whoever is planning the 155th anniversary of the church, will have it on the following day, or some other Sun.

Hope I am able to attend, as I am looking forward to both occasions. The forsythia looks pretty with white snow on the ground. Quite a snow storm yesterday.

One of your Cousins,

Lenna C. Marcie
